Year 6 Art Autumn
Drawing: Make my voice heard Extra: Christmas Cards	From the Ancient Maya to modern-day street art, children look at how artists convey a message. Exploring imagery, symbols, expressive mark making, and 'chiaroscuro' children consider audience and impact to create powerful drawings to make their voices heard.	Draw upon their experience of creative work and their research to develop their own starting points for creative outcomes.
Spring		Using a systematic and independent approach, research, test and
Painting and mixed media Artist study	Manipulate paint and painting techniques to suit a purpose, making choices based on their experiences. Work in a sustained way over several sessions to complete a piece. Analyse and describe the elements of other artists' work, e.g. the effect of colour or composition. Consider materials,	develop ideas and plans using sketchbooks. Describe, interpret and evaluate the work, ideas and processes used by artists across a variety of disciplines, being able to describe how the cultural and historical context may have influenced their creative work. Give reasoned evaluations of their own and others work which takes

Independently use their knowledge of tools, materials and processes to try alternative solutions and make improvements to their work.
Make my voice heard	Draw expressively in their own personal style and in response to their choice of stimulus, showing the ability to develop a drawing independently. Apply new drawing techniques to improve their mastery of materials and techniques. Push the boundaries of mark-making to explore new surfaces, e.g. drawing on clay, layering media and incorporating digital drawing techniques.
Summer
Sculpture and 3D Making Memories	Uses personal plans and ideas to design and construct more complex sculptures and 3D forms. Combine materials and techniques appropriately to fit with ideas. Confidently problem-solve, edit and refine to create desired effects and end results.
